ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI

Professor and Associate Dean of Academic Personnel & Administration 2017-present
College of Arts & Letters Jan-Aug 2017 (50% time)

Michigan State University is an R1, AAU, land-grant university with 50,000 students and 13,000 faculty and staff. The College has a $36M budget, 9 Departments, 17 interdisciplinary centers and programs, 24 majors, 38 minors, 437 faculty and academic staff, 1325 undergraduate and 228 graduate and professional students in seven campus buildings. This associate dean position is the central administrative resource for college chairs and directors in areas of faculty affairs/success and resources with professional development and diversity equity and inclusion in its portfolio. All work is values-enacted guided by equity, openness, and community with inclusion as a matter of habit. The position oversees recruitment and retention, annual review, promotion and tenure, retirement processes for all faculty and academic staff. It advises the Dean on hiring, raise process, and strategic planning decisions and in the areas of faculty personnel and salary policies, chair annual review, faculty discipline, corrective actions, and grievances. The position also oversees the college summer supplementary instructional budget.

Organizational Development

- Established infrastructure of College-level academic HR policies and base-line data reports and dashboard for evidence-based strategic decision making guided by values-guided leadership.

- Ongoing collaborative creation and implementation of the Culture of Care Initiatives and the Charting Pathways to Intellectual Leadership model with the goal of “living the values” (HuMetricsHSS), addressing “epistemic exclusion” (Buchanan, Dotson, Jones, Settles 2020), faculty and staff retention, wellbeing, community/communication building and strengthening of faculty and staff shared governance structures (See related publications).
- Developed new promotion pathways for and with non-tenure stream faculty including as organizer and lead of College Advisory Committee Task Force on Non-Tenure Stream Career Pathways with faculty co-chairs (see new College guidelines and university team for union negotiation).
Faculty Success: Due in part to the implementation of transparent non-tenure stream promotion policies and criteria as well as intentional work to create a sense of belonging for such faculty in their units, a greater number of non-tenure track faculty have gone through promotion review successfully.
- Co-Organizer of College’s Arts & Humanities Extension Task Force Collaborative with MSU Extension in College of Agricultural and Natural Resources, Spring 2019–2022. PI on two grant proposals; facilitated multiple collaborative undergraduate efforts between the college and extension.
- Contributed to hybrid centralization of College administrative support staff AY 2020-21 for efficiency and greater communication and performance, with particular focus on the Human Resources (HR) Team reorganization. Collaborated with new College HR Director to train new HR Team.

Student Recruitment and Student Success

- Led Academic Affairs in the College from AY 2017-2019. Oversaw all matters of curriculum including facilitating shared governance, new undergraduate initiatives, interdisciplinary majors and the Center for Integrative Studies in the Arts and Humanities; academic program review and assessment; oversaw and served ex-officio on the College Curriculum Council (CCC); Facilitated the creation of and implemented the new College experiential learning requirement via the CCC. Worked with the Dean to create new Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies position in the College. Established the College Undergraduate Committee to provide a space for best practices discussions of teaching and learning and student success;
- Co-PI of Mellon BTAA Less Commonly Taught and Indigenous Languages Partnership Grant (see grants) – This grant has as one goal the support of less commonly taught language and Indigenous language instruction to create community and a sense of belonging for both native speakers and heritage learners. As co-PI Associate Dean, I oversaw the grant work for the PI Dean Long.
- College representative on the new College DEI Alumni Advisory Board that has identified one of their key areas to be application to classroom. The board will identify initiatives that target summer melt, advising, persistence rate, etc. they could support whether monetarily or through volunteer work.

Multiple Diversity Initiatives in the College and University

- Overhauled college academic search structures and procedures with focus on inclusive, equitable, and transparent hiring at all levels and points of process. Developed handbooks, implemented required inclusive practices search training, and College oversight process.
- Oversight of and collaboration with the College Inclusive Practices Committee on multiple agenda items, including biyearly awarding of Engaged Pedagogy and Programming Grants, DEI in annual and promotion review, department and program DEI committees, COVID-impact.
- Cross-College Accessibility Fellows Grant (2019-2020) to support curricular development. Creation and implementation of the College Inclusive Pedagogy Initiative: workshops (2020-22) and the College Inclusive Pedagogy Fellows (2022-23) to support faculty curricular development.
- MSU Academic Advancement Network Learning Community Co-facilitator “Anti-Racist Strategies for Teaching, Learning, and Faculty Development Efforts.” AY 2020-21

- Administrative, cluster hire searches, and new chair support for the creation of the new Department of African American and African Studies; College postdoc cluster hires 2022-23.
- University level: MSU Council of Diversity Deans Subcommittee member that created evaluation recommendations for new DEI annual review/promotion and tenure criteria (See guidelines);
- University level: Organizer, facilitator, author social media support initiative for faculty and staff who have been trolled

Faculty and Academic Staff Development

- Revised and expanded College New Faculty Orientation Series and holistic collaborative workshops on Charting a Pathway to Intellectual Leadership model
- Established the College Mentoring Fellows Program for both tenure stream and non-tenure stream and academic staff. Has built trust, community/belonging, and resulted in multiple collaborative projects
- Established the College New and Newish Administrators Meeting Series; Created the College Academic Administrators Onboarding Handbook.
- Established the College Faculty Leadership Fellows Program to reduce the hidden curriculum.

Development

- College representative on the new College DEI Alumni Advisory Board. The board has identified three areas 1) Application to Classroom, 2) Classroom to Community, 3) Classroom to Career, and will identify initiatives they wish to support whether monetarily or through volunteer work.
- Ongoing work with the College Executive Director of Development on the above initiative as well as in local and on-site meetings with prospective donors.
- Oversight of multiple endowed chair searches.
- Participated in CASE Advanced Development for Deans and Leaders in January 2019.

University-level Leadership

- Founder and Co-chair of the University-wide Council of Faculty Affairs Associate Deans (2018-2020, member 2020-present), Location of monthly campus wide faculty affairs administrative conversations with 25 associate deans and directors from wide variety of academic units
- College representative, MSU/Non-tenure-track Teaching Faculty & Academic Staff Union (UNTF) contract negotiation – 2018, 2023.
- Co-Lead, University Committee on Remote Work: Workplace of the Future, Spring 2021
- Co-Chair of MSU Education Abroad Program Innovation & Quality Workgroup, 2019-2020
- Co-Organizer of the University Education 2035 Initiative – multidisciplinary, cross-campus conversations on the Future of Artificial Intelligence and Teaching and Learning with Prof. Andrew Christlieb, Department of Computational Mathematics, Science and Engineering (CMSE), 2018-Fall 2019.

Michigan State University

Professor and Department Chairperson

2015-2017

Department of Linguistics, Languages, and Cultures

After two years, I shifted positions to join the leadership team of the new College Dean. The position oversaw a department with a $4.5M budget, 50 faculty members (32 tenure stream) with two PhD programs, three MA programs, six undergraduate majors, ten minors, and a nationally-recognized Less Commonly Taught Language (LCTL) and African Languages program. In 2016, there were 346 majors/661 minors. The primary responsibilities included budget management, personnel (searches, hiring/immigration, promotion and tenure, annual review and merit raise processes) and faculty mentoring, course scheduling (F2F, hybrid, and online), coordination with the Associate Chair, Department Advisory Committee, three Graduate Studies Directors, program coordinators, seven staff and an undergraduate advisor, Department website, social media, and newsletter, fundraising and alumni relations, campus and external networking, department conflict resolution, department documents online.

Significant achievements

- Helped raise $800,000 in donations for the German and Linguistics Programs and organized the first Department Alumni Reunion
- Completed overhaul and launching of the new Department website
- Organized and completed an Academic Program Review for the Dean/Provost's Office
- Created a Department strategic plan, Department online course strategy and Less Commonly Taught Languages business plan
- Streamlined staff procedures to improve communication and transparency
- University/College Service: College of Arts and Letters Dean's Language School Exploratory Task Force and Action Committee, MSU Confucius Institute Review Committee
